Philip Rapp : Bickersons Scripts Vol. 2 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bickersons Scripts Vol. 2:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. "Scripts Vol.2 ... THE BICKERSONS ...Philip Rapp (author) ... BearManor Media (2004)"By J. LovinsBearManor Media presents "THE BICKERSONS SCRIPTS VOL.2" (Paperback), by Philip Rapp (Author) with a foreword by Marsha Hunt and edited by Ben Ohmart.In the editor's notes: - "The first time THE BICKERSONS was up for its own half hour series (1948), a special pilot was written, and is printed here for the first time. Perhaps the most surprising inclusions are the radio commercial scripts. Few people today realize that THE BICKERSONS were kept busy well into the 1970s when Don Ameche and Frances Langford pitched everything from General Motors air conditioning to Coffee Rich. The 30- and 60- second spots were funny and popular, and proved to be an admirable swan song to a beloved creation".* Special footnote: -- Ben Ohmart as before, has captured the historical accuracy and true spirit of the original scripts complete with formatting. Once again you'll rediscover all the bad cooking, bourbon and of course snoring you can handle. If you're a fan or not, this book will give you "the chuckles", from page to page. Within these pages you can feel what it was like to hear and enjoy THE BICKERSONS, Very reasonable and a good value for the price --- For product description and editorial review check this out on the site above my review. They pride themselves on publishing quality entertainment biographies, so they often put out the first book on unique subjects -- plus specializing in books with nostalgic themes and keeping classic Hollywood alive not only thru his publishing house -- Big thank you to Ben Ohmart and his staff. A very good read - Perfect coffee-table book. Highly recommend. Total Page: 244 Pages ~ BearManor Media #ISBN-13: 978-1593930073 ~ (July 31, 2004)

This is the second collection of scripts of the hugely popular Bickersons, a radio/TV series starring Don Ameche and Frances Langford. Includes never-before-published versions of their classic routines, plus original radio commercials, both radio pilots, Christmas episode for the unaired animation show, and more!
