Johnny Vaughan, Denise van Outen : Big Breakfast Vital Statistics before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Big Breakfast Vital Statistics:

Based on the "Stats and Facts" feature of Channel Four's "Big Breakfast" programme, this is collection of odd facts, such as that only 28 per cent of pet stick insects are call "Sticky", but 42 per cent are called "George"; and that 40 blind people are registered to drive cars in Palermo.
