So far this play has turned out to be a lot of fun!!! We are truly enjoying our characters!!! It is fun to watch people put their own spin on their roles!!!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Mediocre productBy 24sixx8Purchased this without realizing there was no written music included.. Only script, some stage directions and lyrics to songs. Didn't see indication that music wasn't included so I took a chance and bought it. A better description should have been available.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. book club read aloudBy Jennifer D MarshPurchased for a potential book club read aloud. Simply fun! Quirky-in-a-good-way. Flexibility with casting, staging, reading (no singing for our group!), audience participation (three games), prizes, and calories.

Bingo is a splashy, zippy, fun new musical comedy - great for theatres looking to produce a small musical with a big heart. Bingo is about a group of die-hard bingo players who stop at nothing to miss their weekly game. In between the number calling, strange rituals and fierce competitions, love blossoms and long lost friends reunite. These lovable characters spring to life with a smart, funny script and bouncy, hummable score. Audiences will be laughing in the aisles when they aren't playing games of bingo along with the cast! Best friends and Bingo pals Vern, Honey and Patsy brave a terrible storm in order to attend the yearly celebration of the birth of Bingo and tribute to its founder, Edwin S. Lowe. As the storm knocks out power at the Bingo Hall, Patsy and Honey remind each other of the ominous night fifteen years ago that began in the same way. In flashback, Honey tells us about the night Vern and her best friend, Bernice, had their falling out. Bernice's sweet, yet headstrong daughter, Alison, enters the Bingo hall in disguise - Bernice's health is failing, and Alison is determined, with the help of Bingo, to reunite her mother with her long-lost best friend.
