The "learn to draw Luda" page was a definite hit with the whole crowd at the party! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Best Gift Ever By Angela Johnson I gave this as a gift to a friend who loves rap (old and new) and colors to relieve stress (he's 31 yrs old). He loved it and couldn't believe something like this even existed. He was flipping through the book as was blown away by who was in it. I would love to see a bigger one (it's a little short) or even a series. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great for teens or rap enthusiasts! By Donna I got this for my teen son's Easter basket as a funny gift. He actually really enjoyed it and he thought it was cool. It has more than just coloring pages. The activity pages were nice and full of well known rappers. I got a kick out of the paper doll on the cover and it sent me back to my childhood. My son didn't cut those out but I think it was very creative.

"Bun B's Coloring and Rap Activity Book' is evidence that C.R.E.A.M. still sometimes rises to the top." --LA Times

"Like the old saying goes, the crayon is mightier than the sword. Bun B and Shea have assembled a perfect collection of today's brightest hip hop stars for fans of all ages to create, color and remix. TheRap Coloring and Activity Book is like your own personal mixtape that you can hang on your fridge and impress everyone with." --Mike Ayers, Rolling Stone
