Gerald G. Graham : Canadian Film Technology, 1896-1986 (Ontario Film Institute) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Canadian Film Technology, 1896-1986 (Ontario Film Institute):

The first director of technical operations and research for Canada's National Film Board profiles the people and technology that together met the challenges of early documentary filmmaking north of the forty-ninth parallel and discusses the board's emergence as an international model for documentary film units. An Ontario Film Institute Book.
