I mean a lot. And I've enjoyed a lot of what I've read- to a point where I want to finish a book to see how things work out or to get to the good parts... but these books, I didn't want to put them down just to so I could finish them, but because I just plain loved them. Each and every word. It has been a LONG time since I've read something that caused me to laugh out loud so hard- these made me lose my breath and my husband to take pictures of me looking stupid laughing while clutching my kindle. Part of me is sad that I am done with them now, part of me wants to go buy the next set of her books and part of me just wants to re-read those again despite the fact my TBR is a mile long. What I do know is I loved every second of these books and each of the characters. Well done, Tara Sivec. I will definitely be adding you to my automatic buy list. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. do not read in public or you'll be looked at funny or told to be quiet because of laughing loudly By Gail A. Stroker This series was hilarious! Warning... do not read in public or you'll be looked at funny or told to be quiet because of laughing loudly! LOL Seriously you won't be able to contain your hysterical laughter. I was even sent to my room by my husband and my son and asked to shut the door because I was being too LOUD!! I found myself talking to myself saying "No they aren't doing that are they? OMG I have to stop laughing, I'm choking..." Snort, Laugh, Snort!!!! Claire, Carter Gavin are great to start off with then you have Liz Jim and OMG Jenny Drew are nuts! This has to be one of the best series ever! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Yes and no... By Vanessa Armenta I read this series a while back and as much as I love this series, I remember why I didn't care for it so much to the first time. I felt that there was way too much cussing and way too many things that normal adults my age wouldn't say. And as cute as Gavin was I wouldn't have let him talk the way he did about a lot of things. He was one violent spoken child. Anyways other than that I loved the fact that Carter and Claire found each other again and that they got their happiness. I was also glad that they didn't have a huge drama fest that left them not together for a while. While most of the things they said and did were funny it was really hard for me to connect with them due to the maturity of it. That is why I only gave this four stars. I am still thinking about reading the next spin off series for their children. I will however say that some of my favorite lines come from Gavin: "Hey, Carter, I'm team Jacob bitch!" and then my next favorite; "Get me some scissors, a razor blade, a jar of peanut butter and some safety goggles,' Gavin says coming up next to us. 'I got this one.'" That kids funny sometimes.

The Chocolate Lovers gang and their crazy stories come together in one, special edition book! Book 1 - Seduction and Snacks: 2012 Goodreads Choice Award Nominee - Best Romance 2013 Indie Romance Convention Award for Best Indie First Book Claire is a twenty-something, single mom that grudgingly helps her best friend sell sex toys while she attempts to make enough money to start her own business to give her foul-mouthed, but extremely lovable (when he's asleep) toddler a better life. When Carter, the one-night-stand from her past that changed her life forever, shows up in her hometown bar without any recollection of her besides her unique chocolate scent, Claire will make it a point that he remembers her this time. With Carter's undisguised shock at suddenly finding out he has a four-year-old son and Claire's panic that her stretch marks and slim to none bedroom experience will send the man of her dreams heading for the hills, the pair will do whatever they can to get their happily ever after. Book 2 - Futures and Frosting: Carter, Claire and Gavin have formed the perfect little family. Their friends are getting married and everyone is growing up, maturing and ready to face the future. Or are they? From bachelorette party hell, porn addictions, dinner roll baseball and botched wedding proposals to finding out everyone's extended family is chock full of crazy, Carter and Claire begin to question the strength of the ties that bind them. Unfortunately, these ties have nothing to do with fuzzy handcuffs and everything to do with the mounting differences between them. Will their friends make a mess of things with their inappropriate comments and need to know everything, or will they convince the couple that happily-ever-after sometimes really can start with beer pong? Book 3 - Troubles and Treats: Drew and Jenny have spent years being the envy of their friends with their out of control sex lives well, not really. Mostly it makes their friends want to throw up in their mouths a little. With two little kids and two busy lives, for the first time, Drew and Jenny aren't on the same page in the bedroom. Drew will stop at nothing to get his previously amorous wife back in the sack and Jenny will do anything for a full night of sleep. Carter and Claire, and Jim and Liz are their usual (un)helpful selves and are full of advice for the discontented duo, wanting nothing more than to help restore order to the usually happy couples lives. In the third and final installment of the Chocolate Lovers Series, will Drew and Jenny find the spark that's been missing in their marriage, or will the trouble they're having cause a stickier situation than the time Jenny poured honey all over Drew and he fused himself to a tree? Short Story - Hearts and Llamas Join the Chocolate Lovers gang as they celebrate Valentine's Day in their usual fashion - with hair pulling, cage fighting and farm animals!
