Original Radio Broadcasts : Jack Benny: No Place Like Home (Old Time Radio) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jack Benny: No Place Like Home (Old Time Radio):

They did amazing things with sound effects to fool you into thinking they really were "someplace else" rather than in a studio. The sound quality is very clear and Dennis Day always sings a song. The most surprising thing is the way they blend the commercials right into the program. Very insidious clever. I quilt do needlework these are great to help the time fly by. I will be getting more.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Nicholas P. LambrakisGreat! lots of old memories1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Hilarious family entertainment!By J MomSound quality was wonderful and the content and subject matter were ideal for all ages. My kids thought the bits containing Jack's parrot "Polly" were the best and kept quoting the jokes to each other. Very wholesome and silly.

Any comedian can be funny in the studio, but domestic comedy is usually considered the province of actors who happen to do comedy. Jack Benny straddled the two roles for most of his career -- the suave, witty master of ceremonies standing on stage in front of a curtain one moment the put-upon householder tormented by a bumptious servant, eccentric friends, and troublesome neighbors the next. Jack, for all his high-flown show-biz pretensions, became everyone's favorite put-upon suburbanite. Mary Livingstone, Phil Harris, Eddie Rochester Anderson, Dennis Day, and Don Wilson all make regular visits to Jack's place, along with favorites like Mel Blanc, Frank Nelson, Artie Auerbach, and the Sportsmen Quartet - plus, some very special guest stars like Frank Sinatra, Boris Karloff and Claudette Colbert! Includes 16 digitally restored and remastered broadcasts, and a Program Guide by radio historian Elizabeth McLeod. Episodes Include: Jack Opens Swimming Pool for the Season 04-18-43; Jack Offers Frank Sinatra Dennis' Job 10-08-44; Jack Tries to Break His Contract With the Sportsmen 11-03-46; I Was Condemned 01-19-47; Jack Fixes a Phonograph and Buys a Baseball Team 04-13-47; Jack and The Gang Listen To The World Series 10-10-48; Jack Tries To Reach His Advertising Agency 11-21-48; How Jack and The Gang Spent Thanksgiving 11-28-48; Don Still Won't Sign His Contract 01-30-49; Don Signs a New Contract 02-06-49; Jack Takes Inventory of His Pantry and Has a Memory Loss 10-02-49; Jack's Memory is Lost and Found 10-09-49; Recovering From a Cold 10-16-49; Trimming the Tree 12-25-49; Jack Gets The House Painted 04-16-50; Beverly Wilshire Health Club 01-30-55
