

(Online library) Jack Cristil: Voice of the MSU Bulldogs, Revised Edition

Jack Cristil: Voice of the MSU Bulldogs, Revised Edition

Sid Salter

*ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

Download

Read Online

#2124925 in Books 2015-08-18Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 8.90 x .80 x 5.90l, .90 #File Name: 1496805003256 pages | File size: 31.Mb

Sid Salter : Jack Cristil: Voice of the MSU Bulldogs, Revised Edition before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jack Cristil: Voice of the MSU Bulldogs, Revised Edition:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wrap in in Maroon and WhiteBy JeffGreat book that would be a great gift for those who love Mississippi State, stories about how things were in much simpler times, and/or those interested in how hard work and love of the craft can bring rewards measured in respect and love by one's audience rather than money.RIP Jack, you are missed by many.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. This one is wrapped in Maroon and White.By M. A. LathamA beautiful tribute to a wonderful man. He will always be remembered as the Voice of the Bulldogs.

Jack Cristil (1925-2014) was a Southeastern Conference icon and the Voice of Bulldog athletics for more than five decades. In this biography, Cristil's remarkable life and career is shared with all Bulldog fans. Authored by Mississippi journalist Sid Salter with a foreword by distinguished Mississippi State University alum John Grisham, the book originally sold over 10,000 copies and raised over $170,000 for the Jacob S. Jack Cristil Scholarship in Journalism at MSU. With a fifty-eight-year association with MSU, Cristil was the second-longest tenured college radio play-by-play announcer in the nation at the time of his 2011 retirement. During his legendary career as the Voice of the Bulldogs, Cristil called 636 football games since 1953. That's roughly 60 percent of all the football games played in school history. He was in his 54th season as the men's basketball play-by-play voice, having described the action of almost 55 percent of all the men's basketball games. In all, Cristil shared with Bulldog fans across the Magnolia State and around the world more than 1,500 collegiate contests. Central to Cristil's inspiring story was his upbringing in Memphis as the son of first-generation Russian-Jewish immigrants. This paperback edition is updated with new material covering Cristil's death and memorial service, with additional post-retirement and memorial photos.

Jack Cristil has been such an important part in the fabric of the culture of the state of Mississippi, not just Mississippi State University, for an amazingly long run. He's been the consummate professional, and I consider myself very lucky to have had the opportunity to work with him. He is a legend, and he will always be The Voice of the Bulldogs. Dan Mullen, head football coach at Mississippi State University, Jack's signature call of "Wrap it in Maroon and White" after a Bulldog victory and his skill at calling action on the field and court made him a legendary figure among sports fans and broadcasters far and wide. Jack has earned a spot in the collegiate sports history books and, more importantly, he will always have a special place in the hearts of all in the Bulldog family. Dr. Mark Keenum, president of Mississippi State University, Jack Cristil isn't just any broadcaster. He is an MSU icon. Cristil is the most beloved individual in the history of Mississippi State football and all sports. Period. Rick Cleveland, Clarion-Ledger columnist and author, "It's been an honor and pleasure to have the opportunity to work with a legend such as Jack Cristil, the greatest sports announcer of all time. I consider Jack a close friend, and I will dearly miss our pregame and post-game conversations. There will never be another one like him." Rick Stansbury, former head basketball coach at Mississippi State University, "About the Author" Sid Salter, Starkville, Mississippi, is Chief Communications Officer at Mississippi State University. He has been a Mississippi syndicated political columnist for more than thirty years.