Mike Ward : Jumbo Hangman before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jumbo Hangman:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not happy!By Jhum KudiThe scratch surfaces on many pages were defect...would not scratch. How disappointing.

If good things come in small packages, even better things must come in jumbo ones. That's certainly true of this large-format collection of puzzles featuring the 26 letters of the alphabet accompanied by silver scratch-off circles. Choose a letter, scratch a circle, and see if you've made a match. Sound easy? Six misses is all you get before you find yourself swinging from the short end of a long rope!

About the AuthorMike Ward is the head puzzle compiler at Brainteaser Publications. He has been compiling puzzles for about 20 years, starting off with producing crosswords for various newspapers, then branching out with publications with a brainteaser flavor. Ward, who is based in New Zealand, published the Scratch Hangman books down there, and sold over 250,000 copies locally before assigning the title to Sterling.
