L D Crowie : Jumbo Word Search before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jumbo Word Search:

'Jumbo Word Search' was designed for people with very poor eyesight, like myself, who want a challenge from their word search puzzles, and is set in super large 24 point Verdana font. I have used as many words as would fit into the large format grids. The search words are arranged horizontally, vertically and diagonally and can read forwards or backwards and an eclectic mix of topics is covered. They are to found to the left of the full-page grids. No solutions are provided, in order to bring you as many puzzles as possible. If you are frustrated with smaller font puzzles then get your copy today. The Puzzled Zebra Books publication would also make a great gift for a puzzle-loving friend or relative with poor eyesight. Whether you call it word seeks, word finder, circle a word, hidden words or word search it is still the same fun. Pick up your pen, or pencil, and find those sneaky words.
