Alan Bennett : Kafka's Dick (BBC Radio Collection) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Kafka's Dick (BBC Radio Collection):

Richard Griffiths, Alison Steadman and Peter Woodthorpe star in this BBC Radio 4 version of Alan Bennett's acclaimed comedy drama stage play. Present-day Kafka aficionado Sydney, and his wife Linda, are visited by the long-dead Kafka and his friend Max Brod (with whom Kafka had left instructions for all his works to be burned instructions which Brod chose to ignore). As we spend time with the unusual party, it becomes clear that Kafka's wish was for anonymity and also that he had serious issues with his father. When his parent turns up, he is in possession of a very personal secret relating to his son one which Kafka is terrified he will disclose...This is a brilliantly clever, fast-moving comedy drama from award-winning Alan Bennett, and the performances of the starry cast are riveting.
