Mr Max Bruch : Kol Nidrei Op.47 for Cello and String Orchestra before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Kol Nidrei Op.47 for Cello and String Orchestra:

Bruch completed Kol Nidrei in Liverpool before it was first published in Berlin in 1881. It is an Adagio on Hebrew Melodies and consists of a series of variations on two main themes of Jewish origin. This arrangement of Kol Nidrei uses the original scoring for full orchestra and skilfully adapts it for string orchestra. A digital version of this arrangement can be found at www.mymusicscores.com. In this book you will find the score plus the solo cello and string orchestra parts. These parts can be photocopied so you have enough scores for your entire ensemble to play from. Never lose your parts again!
