Also, read about her in Vanity Fair I think. Dominick Dunne had written a little about her history. I still miss his articles as his observations were so astute. Anyway.....The only thing I have to warn potential buyers of is DON'T BUY THE EBOOK. I downloaded this book on my Kindle and the pictures just aren't there. I also checked on my laptop. Nope, not there either. I don't mean the pictures of her castle. The author gives the link to those. I mean the pictures the author says are in the book of her tiaras. I would have loved to have seen those. I've had some issues with the Kindle Library. I like to pass my books on and makes that difficult. From now on, nothing but print for me. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. New British Writer to Watch - Robert Gary Dodds By Linda Broughton I just purchased 3 copies of "Lady C the Lioness Unleashed" by Robert Gary Dodds. I can't wait to read Gary's book about a unique woman that told the world of about Princess Diana's unhappy marriage in a book of her own. Since then she has written about the other members of the Royal Family, was on a contestant on a British reality show and has just remodeled her own castle. There are more intriguing details of her life I'm anxious to read about in Gary's book. Thank you Gary and Lady C for sharing with the rest of us. The author has managed to expose both the difficult and the wonderful characteristics of this very unique and exciting lady. It is obvious that he truly has delved beneath the exterior of her soul and with the help of family, friends, acquaintances and a true first hand understanding of her background and a given ability to read people's inner most thoughts was able to relate to the reader what really makes Lady C tick. She really is one in a million and to have gone through so much in her life and still be able to hold her head up high and be the person she is today shows just how incredible she is. Definitely well worth reading even for the few who may not like her. This book may just change your mind. As the saying goes one should not judge a book by its cover.

The true story of the life of Lady C, Lady Colin Campbell, the woman who first broke the news of Princess Diana's unhappy marriage. Lady C was the jungle star of the reality TV show I'm A Celebrity...Get Me Out of Here! 2015 series as many of the British media reported and The Lady in the Castle 2016. Lady C made for compelling viewing, whether you loved her or hated her, and was so unpredictable. "What is she going to say next?" She had everybody sitting on the edge of their seats, night after night! As controversial a celebrity as they come this is the real story of a woman of our time whose life has been filled with glamorous celebrities. She is the woman who broke the news before anyone else of Princess Diana's unhappy marriage, and some of the book's new revelations, claims and quotes are: - An attempted murder. - Who Lady C nearly married. - An almost Royal affair. - Major James Hewitt and the author's twist of fate. - Hear from Lord Colin Campbell and the present Duke of Argyll. - Reality TV shows, over-manipulation and editing? - Quotes from fellow Jungle contestants Kieron Dyer and Chris Eubank. - Lady C's acerbic comments on Tony Blair, Brexit and US politics today. - Her caustic remarks that are reserved for the French.

About the Author Robert Gary Dodds was born in England and married into one of Jamaica's established colonial families in the 70s. He is highly adept at assessing and reading people, and counts a lot of established families in Jamaica as old friends this last 40 years. Remember Jamaica's motto: 'Out of Many - One People.' His reach through friends and connections covers most continents. Gary has a quick wit and sense of humor and is known for being a born diplomat, honesty, and telling it as it is. Those who know him say that he has a high level of integrity, and that he's someone who's great at keeping in touch with people. He has done a lot of work with charities wherever he's lived, such as with terminally ill children in the former Vietnamese refugee camp in Hong Kong. He was a Governor of The Hong Kong Sea School for Boys, and helped out at a home for disabled children in Dubai. He sits on Rwanda and Burundi's Akilah Women's Institute Global Advisory Council. With Mary, his wife of 38 years, they have homes in the United States and England. Their son Alexander and their daughter Rebecca and her family live a ten minute walk away from their North Carolina home. Gary travels extensively and works as a management consultant and advisor with a number of international companies, in the US, the West Indies, South America, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and India.
