You either are or aren't a Garrison Keillor fan. I "are". Some of the older stories are on here and it's good to hear them again. He's family, as far as I'm concerned, so I love to hear him weave a tale. 10 of 11 people found the following review helpful. Garrison Keillor is a must buy By Joan R My husband and I love Garrison Keillor. His stories are life stories told with very dry humor. We always include G.K. CDs on road trips, they are stories that you can listen to over and over and still laugh. His style has improved over the years. The first CD has "Living Flag" story told in 1981 which is a good story, however, I have heard the same story told 10 and 20 years later and his story telling techniques and emphasis have improved. Don't let this comment shy you away from purchasing this set of CDs. CD #1 includes stories from 1981 to 1986. CD #2 includes stories from 1987-1991. CD#3 includes stories from 1993-2001. CD #4 includes stories from 2002-2010. 15 of 16 people found the following review helpful. Garrison Keillor: Master Story Weaver! By Barbara Klavon Garrison Keillor...hilarious as usual. It's such a pleasure to hear such wonderful stories about such interesting people. If you ever have the pleasure of visiting Minnesota or Wisconsin you'll certainly find one of these 'characters'.

Garrison Keillor has been delighting audiences for four decades now with heartfelt, moving, and downright hilarious tales from the shores of Lake Wobegon. Here, for the first time ever, News from Lake Wobegon monologues from the entire history of the little town on the edge of the prairie are presented in one collection. From early fan favorites Bruno the Fishing Dog and A Trip to Grand Rapids to more recent highlights such as The Hochstetter House and The Arrival of Liz, Lake Wobegon Family Reunion brings together the friends, neighbors, and family members that listeners have embraced as their own.

Packed with whimsical and revealing observations, perfect for any who wants a solid introduction to the variety and comedy of Prairie Home Companions radio monologues. The Bookwatch
