Class Magic Show.:

Have you ever wanted to put on a magic show for your friends and family, but didnt know how? Well now is your chance to learn. In this book you will be taught the basic information needed to create a character, assemble your own magical costume, and collect props to perform a wiz bang magic show. In addition to that, you will walk through the process of creating, staging, and performing routines that will make you look and act like a pro. Now is the chance to follow your dream of performing magic on the big stage. So call your friends, set a date, and put on a magic show using Mister Porkpies Magic Performance for Children. Andrew B. Remnet was born and raised in Southern California. During his early years, school was always a struggle for everyone involved. It wasnt until he was out in the real world, that age and experience started working in his favor. Now he has a renewed thirst for knowledge that spreads into every aspect of his life. Andrew now uses his self taught skills to perform educational magic shows for preschools throughout the Southern California area. In addition to his educational programs, he also performs as Mister Porkpie, a campy comedic magical family friendly entertainer who stops at nothing to bring joy and delight to audiences ranging from under one to over one hundred years of age. If you are looking for squeaky clean fun and games, you have found the right joker for the job. Mister Porkpie can be found clowning it up at a childs birthday party, hamming around at a special event, or just entertaining a group of seniors. Wherever he performs, you will find that there is always Good Clean Fun for the Whole Family.
