Cassette introduction and closing comments by "Golden Age" radio performer Elliott Reid. "The Island of Death" (Originally broadcast on April 28, 1947) A group of singular characters has been invited to a deserted island deep in the Scottish Lake District. A circus fat lady, a group of midgets, and a contortionist known as the "Human Skeleton" ask Holmes and Watson to accompany them on their journey. What is on the mind of the diabolical scientist who has gathered them all together? Can Holmes prevent a tragedy from transpiring? The Remarkable Affair of the Pointless Robbery (Originally broadcast on May 5, 1947) Reverend Kenmore asks Sherlock Holmes to investigate a very unusual crime . . . the rectory has been ransacked, yet nothing was taken. Shortly thereafter the local chemist is murdered and his death is linked to the burglary at the rectory. Some sinister force is behind this. Can Moriarty be behind these evil doings?
