folded in half, creasing the cover and breaking the spine. This was naturally upsetting to begin with. But then I opened the book and realised it was also missing the last page. The publishers are clearly aware of the problem, because instead of re-printing the book to fix the error, they simply included a one page printer paper copy of the missing last page. Ridiculous. DO NOT BUY THIS BOOK. I recommend purchasing either the International Edition or the Kalmus edition. At least you can be guaranteed that those aren't missing pages! Stay well away from this awful Music Minus One edition. It's a pity the CD can't be purchased alone, though, as that is a great companion to the music.. but the CD alone is definitely NOT worth the $30!Not recommended.

(Music Minus One). Mozart's fourth violin concerto continues his string of magical violin masterworks, all composed in the same year. Its beautiful classical themes and orchestrations make it a magnificent piece for the violinist. Vivaldi's A minor violin concerto is a baroque masterpiece. A marvelous piece not to be passed over! Contains a printed score and a compact disc featuring both concerti in split-channel stereo with the violinist on the right channel; then again in a stereo accompaniment version minus the solo violin part. Performed by Geoffrey Applegate, violin Accompaniment: Vienna Festival Orchestra Conductor: Franz Litschauer
