Dave Nevison : No Easy Money: A Gambler's Diary before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised No Easy Money: A Gambler's Diary:

Following on from his highly successful autobiography "A Bloody Good Winner", Dave Nevison gives a no holds barred account of life on the road, betting on the top racetracks in Britain and the adventures that go with it. This nuts and bolts account of his progress, or otherwise, starts at the 2008 Cheltenham Festival and ends with the final Flat race of the year, the St Leger at Doncaster. His avowed aim is to make a GBP 1 million, and every week there will be a detailed account of the bets, how they are doing and the emotional highs and lows that go with it.

About the AuthorDAVE NEVISON is a professional punter who is well known through his popular weekly diary in the Racing Football Outlook newspaper and regular appearances on the Racing UK television channel. DAVID ASHFORTH is a senior reporter and columnist with the Racing Post, and a former Horserace Writer of the Year.
